Loan on low interest rate to exporlvere

2246. SHRI RAJ NATH SINGH;

SHRIMATI MALTI SHARMA:

Will the Minister of FINANCE bs pleased to state:

(A) whether Government propose to give maximum loan on lew in terest rate to exporters keeping in view the increasing challenges in world market;

(b) whether Government have also received any request in this regard;

(c) if so, the details thereof and the steps taken by Government on this and also to increase the limit ot loan amount; and

(d) the time by which the decision is likely to be taken in the regard?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI SATPAL MAHARAJ): (a) to (d) Reserve Bank of India (RBI) has reported that it has been con* stantly pursueing a policy to make available export credit at reasonably low rate of interest so as to strike a proper balance between cost to exporters and profitability to banks. The interest rates applicable on . rupee credit at pment and post-shipment stages are regularly reviewed by RBl and are adjusted from time to time taking into account various factors incljuding developments in the financial mar kets, exchange rate differential etc. On such a review recently interest rate on post-shipment rupee credit upto 90 days as reduced with effect from June 26, 1997 from "Not Exceeding 13.0 per cent per annum" to "Not Exceeding 12.0 per cent per annum" and for period beyond 90 days and upto six months from the date of shipment the rate applicable was reduced from "15.0 per cent per annum" to "14.0 per cent per annum". At pre-shipment stag the rate of interest appHcable pr? sendy is 13.0 per cent per annuL. for period upto 180 days. Exporters can avail of finance both at pre-shipment and post-shipment stages either in fore'gn currency under PCFC/ESR Schemes at internationally competitives rate (i.e. rates linked to LIBOR) or in rupees.

RBI has also been advising banks time and agam that credit requirements of exporter-borrowers are met in full and promptly and that no worthwhile export order should suffer or want of bank finance.

FICCI stress on prudential norms of accounting

2247. SHRIMATI VEENA VERMA:

SHRI SUSHILKUMAR SAMBHAJIRAO SHINDE:

Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to state:

(a) whether the Federation of Indian Chambers of Commerce and Industry (FICCI) stressed the need to demonstrate to the outside world that India's financial systems are strong and the prudential norms of accounting and transparency are in place in the banking sector;

(b) wliether it is a fact that these observations have come in the wake of a studv by the Federation of the Banking and Financial Systems in India; if so, the details of the report, if any, submitted to Govern-ment; and

(c) the Government's reaction thereto to bring about reforms in the banking and financial systems in India to stand to the aforesaid pru dential norms of accounting and transparency?